

PHOTOS: SMOC and United Way hold annual holiday lunch

The annual SMOC and Tri-County United Way holiday luncheon for formerly homeless single adults was held Tuesday at the Greater Framingham Community Church. Some 150 people were served by 40 volunteers.

Darlene Assencoa-Makurek leads “Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer” at the annual SMOC and Tri-County United Way holiday luncheon at the Greater Framingham Community Church Tuesday. [Daily News and Wicked Local Staff Photo/Art Illman]

Mayor-elect Yvonne Spicer embraces Shirley Sanabria at the annual SMOC and Tri-County United Way holiday luncheon at the Greater Framingham Community Church Tuesday. [Daily News and Wicked Local Staff Photo/Art Illman]

Azucena Ochoa and Tim Driscoll serve salads at the annual SMOC and Tri-County United Way holiday luncheon at the Greater Framingham Community Church Tuesday. [Daily News and Wicked Local Staff Photo/Art Illman]

Juri Love, of Foxborough, provided music at the annual SMOC and Tri-County United Way holiday luncheon at the Greater Framingham Community Church Tuesday. [Daily News and Wicked Local Staff Photo/Art Illman]

City Councilors-elect Edgardo Torres, (District 9) and Cheryl Tully Stoll, (At-Large) serve up meals at the annual SMOC and Tri-County United Way holiday luncheon at the Greater Framingham Community Church Tuesday. [Daily News and Wicked Local Staff Photo/Art Illman]

At the Greater Framingham Community Church, Rev. Anthony Lloyd welcomes guests at the annual SMOC and Tri-County United Way holiday luncheon Tuesday. [Daily News and Wicked Local Staff Photo/Art Illman]